Complainant, the patient, was present and addressed the Board, stating she filed a complaint with the Office of Civil Rights due to Respondent sharing personal information with malicious intent. Complainant described the situations that were in her complaint and stated the three kids were the victims. Complainant explained Respondent had access to the information unethically and indicated HonorHealth was willing to lie for Respondent. Complainant stated there was no justice for her daughter and their lives will forever be changed. Grandinetti was not present or represented by counsel.

. Ellis stated there were two sides to a story and felt the least that could be done was a Letter of Concern. Board members questioned the reasoning for the proposed Board option of a dismissal. Board staff explained it was a complex case and the kids were in the middle of a contentious situation. Board staff stated, although the Board received written statements from two of the kids, it was not necessary or appropriate to interview them as they are minors. Board staff explained many interviews were conducted with Respondent's colleagues who spoke highly of her nursing practice and character. Board staff indicated there were no facts to the case and the team felt the proposed Board option of a dismissal was appropriate. Dr. Hill-Mekoba stated, looking through an objective lens, there was no violation of the Nurse Practice Act.
